ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Could you be true to hair of blue,
If you gazed upon hair of green?
Or if a head of Turkey red
Enraptured you with its sheen?
Would you dare wink if locks of pink
Came jauntily dancing by?
I'd like to know a day or so
Before I buy my dye!

MAYSVILLE MARKET BEST

Tobacco Brings More Money Here All Things Considered, Than In Neighboring Markets.

MAYSVILLE ALWAYS LEADS.

Yesterday a farmer brought the remainder of his tobacco crop to the Growers' warehouse in this city. He said he had taken part of the crop to a warehouse in a nearby town and it only brought 6 cents.

That part he brought here he sold for 9.00.

A few days ago a man split his crop and brought part to Mayaville and the other half to another town. At the Growers' house he got an average of $1.50 per hundred more than he did in the other place.

Moral—If you want good prices bring your tobacco to Mayaville.

"THE BEAUTIFUL SNOW"

All Out of Doors a Divine Masterpiece This Morning—Fleecy Festoons Garland Everything.

Of course I love to see it come—It falls so soft and slow—But I'm nearly twice as glad To see it melt and go.

This morning the inhabitants of this blessed land awoke from dreamy slumber to find every thing out of doors festooned with immaculate and fleecy garlands of snow. Soft and white like downy cotton, the trees and shrubs and buildings took on a fairy-like appearance that caused one to utter an exclamation of wonder and delight.

It was the work of the Divine Artist, a heavenly masterpiece and well might the poet have written of "THE BEAUTIFUL SNOW."

This winter is a record-breaker for snows, and February and March are each entitled to a special prize for having their full allotment of the beautiful—and then some.

Today's snow is No. 24, according to the calculation of the Snow Editor.

RELIGIOUS SPIRIT ARJUSED

Third Street M. E. Church Revival Shows Remarkable Fervor For Beginning.

The success of the revival at the Third Street M. E. Church is already assured. This was the feeling of every one of the large crowd that attended last evening's service. Dr. Bunton said that he had never seen a better spirit in a revival service. He preached a very forceful and heart-searching sermon from Paul's word, "Let This Mind Be in You Which was in Christ Jesus." He had the closest attention of the large audience throughout, indeed it seemed that everyone was under the spell of the wonderful Gospel message. The invitation song was "Let Him Have His Way with Thee." Dr. Bunton invited everyone who was willing to let Jesus have His way with them to come forward and give him and the pastor their hands. The larger part of the audience acted upon the invitation. One young man was converted at the altar and will come into membership of the church.

The singing is surely catching the people. When Howard Trent touches the piano if there is any song in one it is sure to come out. During the song service "Fist sang very sweetly "Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me."

These services are going to increase in power and interest each day and night. You are missing much if you fail to attend. Services—very evening at 7:30. Come in time to join in the song service. It will do you good and put you in the right spirit for the Gospel as Dr. Bunton shall present it.

Merz who made this purchase: "Some of our friends in the office here told me of a great purchase they made from a Big Importing House on Broadway. I don't believe that I can use adequate words to tell you the beauty of these goods. I bought 25 patterns, 4 1-2 yds. each, although there may be a couple of patterns that run larger than this. These goods are worth up to $4.00 yard and are all foreign goods. "Mark them $8.95 for the pattern and you should make the biggest noise that was ever done in the town.
